The 2019 Los Cabos de Urbezo is a new pure Garnacha matured in barrel for three months, trying to give it a little more structure and complexity that keeps the varietal character and the approachable profile of the grape—quite aromatic, expressive and easy—with a fresh herbal touch. The palate is soft, with some creamy notes and a pleasant finish. 30,000 bottles produced. It was bottled in March 2020.
